

SOCIAL WORK TODAY

INDEX VOLUME 19 August 1987–September 1988

Articles and Papers Listed by Subject and Title	Issue No	Page
Adoption
'Adoption means care for both parents and child' — Implications of Section 1 of Adoption Act 1976. June Thoburn	45	14/15	'Child protection service needs fundamental review' and 'Recognising rights of parents' — Analysis of Kimberley Carlile inquiry. Lynn Eaton & John Gilbert	17	6/7
'Law to aid adult adoptees' — Summary of legislation in New Zealand enabling access to information. Ann Corcoran	46	18	'A child in mind, a lost opportunity' — Kimberley Carlile Inquiry. Martin Ruddock	20	14/15
			'Freeing information' — How Sutton has opened up case conferences to parents. Sally Burningham	31	13
			'Child abuse debate: Where's the social work perspective?' — Need for debate among social workers on child sexual abuse. Margaret Jervis	36	8
AIDS			'Helping sexually abused children shed some pain'. Jean Houlihan & Pat Ling	36	14/15
'Do social workers have a special role in helping AIDS patients?' — Social work counselling for people with AIDS. Andrea Breach	9	10/11	'Forming links in the community chain' — How community social work can prevent child abuse. Barbara Hearn	40	17
'Crisis initiatives under way' — Initiatives to combat the social consequences of AIDS. Anne Fry	15	7	'Skills that are best learned by experience' — Impact of Cleveland affair on social work. David Pithers	42	16/17
'Coping with AIDS and ARC in San Francisco' — Account of AIDS counselling in the US. Reba Bhaduri	18	16/17	'Countdown to the crisis' — Potted history of Cleveland affair. Margaret Jervis	42	16/17
'AIDS: A terminal disease becomes a family affair' — Story of a person dying from AIDS and the social worker's support. Nigel Harvey	28	16/17	'Detached amid the clamour' — Interview with Dr Danya Glaser, co-author of book on child sexual abuse. Margaret Jervis	43	18/19
'Helping babies with AIDS' — Fostering AIDS babies in Scotland. Nicola Barry	33	15	'The trial of working through a nightmare' — Cleveland Director, Mike Bishop describes the ordeal of the Cleveland affair. Anne Fry	44	12/13
Alcohol and Drug Abuse			'Choosing to survive' — Child abuse consultant Sue Richardson on the experience. Sue Richardson	44	14
'Why residential care for alcohol and drug abusers?' — Halfway houses for people with alcohol or drugs problems. Andrew Shephard	38	12/13	'Time to dim the blue light of dramatic intervention' — Interview with John Chan, social work assessor on the Cleveland Inquiry Panel. Anne Fry	44	16/17
'Towards a psychological view of substance abuse'. Andrew Shephard	44	18/19	'Cleveland Report and reaction'. Margaret Jervis, Lynn Eaton, Anne Fry	45	6-11
			'Training to cope with the traumas of child abuse' — Implications of Cleveland Inquiry Report for social work training. Margaret Jervis	46	14/15
Amnesia
'When time fails to leave its mark' — Story of amnesiac Clive Wearing and the burden it places on carers. Nicola Barry	29	18
BASW
'Plain spoken and in love with social work' — Profile of Gwen Swire, incoming BASW Chair. John Gilbert	28	13	'Learning to foster abused children' — Running a course on child sexual abuse for social workers and foster parents. Ann Sharp	48	18/19
'Putting BASW behind the move to change' — Summary of child care motions to annual meeting. Philip Measures	28	14/15	'Dealing with child abuse by a generic approach' — Pioneering work in Islington where neighbourhood teams combat sexual abuse. Margaret Jervis	49	22/23
Case Conferences
'Freeing information' (see Child Abuse)	31	13	'When social workers are used as scapegoats' — How will social work respond to the beating it has received in recent child abuse inquiries? Julian Hillman	50	18/19
Charities
'Our charities: too much faith and hope?' — Charity business in need of reform. Chris Heginbotham	11	12/13	'Difficult social task' — Reflections on the Tyra Henry child abuse inquiry. Robin Osmond, former Director Lambeth SSD	50	20
'The Spastics Society gets its house in order' — Interview with Doug Shapland, Society's Chair, after disagreements with former Director, Sir John Cox. Anne Fry	33	8/9
Child Abuse (inc Cleveland)
'Child abuse reviews — the impact of the parents' — Effects of parental participation in child abuse reviews (Greenwich). Paul McGloin & Annmarie Turnbull	6	16/17	Child Care
'Why copper deficiency can rarely be blamed for infant injuries'. Dr Leonard Taitz	11	16/17	'First steps towards a non-sexist child care practice'. Fiona Gardner	8	12/13
'Why ignoring the rights of parents in child abuse cases should be avoided'. Brian Corby	13	8/9	'Filling a gap in child care training' — ESCATA's training package, "Decision making in child care". Sally Burningham	24	14/15
'Child sexual abuse set to become an epidemic over the next decade' — Preview of NCH seminar on child sexual abuse. Tom White	13	14	'Putting BASW behind the move for change'. (See under BASW)
'A child abuse inquiry — the social worker's tale' — Kimberley Carlile Inquiry. Martin Ruddock	15	14/15	'The impossible demands of child care' — Child care services in Essex. Maurice Hawker, Peter Wedge, Jan Phelan	35	9-11
'A child abuse inquiry — the lawyer's tale' — Kimberley Carlile Inquiry. Brian Raymond	15	16/17	'Reforming child protection' — Need to overhaul child care law. Peter Wedge & Jan Phelan	37	16/17
			'Moving towards a wider range of foster homes'. Peter Wedge & Jan Phelan	39	18/19

SOCIAL WORK TODAY INDEX: VOLUME 19

Articles and Papers Listed by Subject and Title	Issue No	Page
'A partnership to vault the hurdles of child care' — Children in care need an alert co-ordinated approach by those responsible for them. John Welsby	40	18/19	Copper Deficiency (See Child Abuse)
'Time to be all clear on the child care front' — Assessment of performance of Essex child care policy. Peter Wedge & Jan Phelan	41	14/15	Day Care (See Mental Handicap)
'Time to declare our own goals' — The need for further improvements in child care policy. Maurice Hawker	43	14/15	Dementia
'How warfare measures led to child welfare services' — Evacuation and the Children Act, the effect on child care policies. Joan Cooper	47	16/17	'Should guardianship orders be used to deal with cases of dementia?' — Case history in Scotland. Tom Leckie & Pauline Proctor	1	8/9
Children's Rights			'The success of a unique scheme for elderly mentally ill people' — Intensive support scheme for demented elderly people living at home. Blair McPherson	12	18/19
'Crossing the boundaries' — The work of a children's rights officer. Margaret Jervis	35	12/13	'Nothing ventured . . . risk-taking in community care' — Description of a specialist team supporting elderly people with dementia in the community. Blair McPherson	27	14/15
Cleveland (see Child Abuse)			Disability
Community Programme			'Bridging a gap by improving social skills for disabled people' — A disabled social worker describes her own work with disabled people. Maggie Barwick	6	18/19
'A community programme success under threat' — Successful schemes providing domiciliary care threatened by adult training programme. Margaret Jervis	26	12/13	'Disabled people point the way forward' (See Consumer Involvement)	20	16/17
Community Social Work			'Releasing stress and building confidence with karate' (See SWT Awards)	21	16/17
'Taking care into the community' (see Mental Health)	10	13-15	'Changing attitudes with play' — Adventure activities for visually impaired youngsters in Scotland. Nicola Barry	36	18
'People with special needs — the Church's role' — Research project on the role of churches in community care. Sally Burningham	14	10/11	'Strength through coalition' — Description of a disabled people's coalition in Scotland. Nicola Barry	46	19
'A team's response to an individual's need' — The value of a community social work team. Barbara Hearn	26	14/15	Disasters
'Nothing ventured . . . risk-taking in community care' (see Dementia)	27	14/15	'Coping with disasters' — How victims of the Hungerford shooting are being supported. Nicola Barry	32	18
'Griffiths Report — an agenda for action'. Lynn Eaton	28	6	'Survivors who must turn tragedy into opportunity' — City Link, the Bradford fire newsletter winds up after three years (SWT Award winner). Michael Stewart	49	16/17
'Sitting tight — taking the strain for carers' — Edinburgh's sister service, winner of SWT award (care in the community). Nicola Barry	30	16/17	'Lessons social work can learn about moving on' — Social worker Michael Stewart explains why he has set up a private consultancy. John Gilbert	49	18/19
'Local money for local care' — Financial implications of Griffiths Report on community care. Clive Miller	35	16	Domestic Violence
'An optimist rethinks care in the community' — Interview with Sir Roy Griffiths. Lynn Eaton	37	8/9	'Help for battered women' — The establishment of domestic violence units at police stations. Sandra Horley	50	21
'Cutting the cloth to suit the client' — How case management can provide individually tailored packages of community care. Penny Banks	37	14/15	Domiciliary Care
'Listening to their needs' — Principles for planning community care service for long-term mentally ill people. Tessa Jowell & Jane Ritchie	38	18	'A community programme success under threat' (See Community Programme)	26	12/13
'Forming links in the community chain'. (See Child Abuse)	40	17	'Patch meetings solve home care problems' — Lambeth recognises key role of home care workers. Esme Hilliard	48	12
Consumer involvement			'Multi-skilled carers in the community' — Description of Darlington Community Care Project providing full range of caring tasks in the home. David Challis et al	48	13-15
'More choice for users of social services — the implications' — BASW/Rowntree project on consumer and community involvement. Peter Beresford & Suzy Croft	16	12/13	Education and Training
'Participation and choice — a worthwhile pilgrimage' — Turning the theory into practice. David Brandon	17	8/9	'Training must acknowledge the importance of community work'. Pat Taylor & Mary Issitt	8	9-11
'Participation and the need to come clean about our motives' — Tuning in to the voice of the consumer. Lynne Berry	18	14/15	'Video company gives a voice to young people in care' — How young people in care can influence policy and practice. Poppy Smith	14	15
'The black experience of social services'. Robert Williams	19	14/15	'Care sector training body faces formidable task'. Margaret Jervis	15	6
'Disabled people point the way forward' — The disabled person as consumer. Richard Wood	20	16/17	'Sociology's place in social work' — Importance of sociology in theory and practice. Peter Day	17	10
'Power to the people — an exercise in propaganda?' — The legends about consumer involvement. Peter Beresford & Suzy Croft	47	14/15	'Filling a gap in child care training' (See Child Care)	24	14/15
'Patients' groups change mental health service' — Establishment of a patients' council in Nottingham. Andrew Lowe	48	16/17	'Training and practice — forging the links' — Development of student unit to identify shortcomings in social work education. Raymond Jack	24	16/17
'Language for service users' — Social work language creates barriers between providers and users. Peter Beresford & Suzy Croft	49	20/21	'Law training in social work' — Report of conference. Derek Heptinstall	33	7
'Can young people change the care system?' — Young people in care involved in a forum to examine the problems of leaving care. Lee Jones et al	51	14/15	'Hopes of three year training by 1991 recede' — CCETSW's training proposals. Lynn Eaton	34	7
'The new paternalism' — How far social workers are prepared to hand over power to their clients. Peter Beresford & Suzy Croft	51	16/17	'Three year training rejected — the profession reacts'. Various	37	6/7
			'Learning to help: training for respite carers' — Training for carers of children with severe handicaps. Carol Robinson	39	16/17
			'Training to cope with the traumas of child abuse' (See Child Abuse)	46	14/15

SOCIAL WORK TODAY INDEX: VOLUME 19

Articles and Papers Listed by Subject and Title	Issue No	Page		Page	16/17
Elderly Care
'The success of a unique scheme for elderly mentally ill people'. (See Dementia)	12	18/19	'The Griffiths Report: a considered response'. Chris Heginbotham & Clive Miller	29	16/17
'Alternative services which aim to affirm an ethnic identity' — How to meet the needs of black elderly people with more appropriate services. Jeff Hopkins	13	10/11	'Local money for local care'. (See Community Social Work)	35	16
'Ethical problems of caring for frail elderly people' — Report of BASW conference. Mary Jolley	16	10	'An optimist rethinks care in the community' — Interview with Sir Roy Griffiths. Lynn Eaton	37	8/9
'Residential care: change from the inside'. (See Residential Care)	21	12/13	'Multi-skilled carers in the community'. (See Domiciliary Care)	48	13-15
'Meeting the housing needs of elderly Asian people'. Poppy Smith	22	9	Homelessness
'Giving the carer a break, a lesson from Belfast' — Relief admission scheme at a Belfast hospital. June Gordon	22	12/13	'An impossible task for those working with homeless people' — Report of conference on homelessness. Anne Fry	14	7
'Pulled all ways — the concerns of a new officer in charge' (See Residential Care)	23	17	'Homelessness: no light at the tunnel's end' — The challenge of homelessness to social work. Derek Heptinstall	29	14/15
'Passing the parcel of responsibility for care'. (See Residential Care)	25	20	'Bridging the gap between policy and resources' — How two outer London boroughs cope with homelessness, Ealing and Greenwich. Margaret Jervis	30	14/15
'Wagner — the implications for residential care'. (See Residential Care)	27	6	'Rewarding work' — How social workers approach homelessness. Paul Saunders and Frank Murphy	31	16
'A close inspection of the wood and the trees'. (See Residential Care)	27	20/21	'A house in the country: a social work issue' — The problems of rural homelessness. Peter Evans	31	14/15
'Raising standards with network meetings' — Planning care and support for vulnerable elderly people. Chloe Rawlings	28	18	'The Irish: Britain's forgotten immigrants' — The Irish experience of homelessness. Geroid O'Meachair	33	18/19
'Medicalising the care of elderly people' — Does medicine have all the answers? Steve Scrutton	42	14/15	'Cracking the system' — A practical guide for social workers dealing with homelessness. Jim McCulloch	34	18/19
'A bitter pill to swallow' — Social workers should challenge dominance of doctors in care of elderly people. Steve Scrutton	43	16/17	Homosexuality
'How diet can improve the health of older people'. Steve Scrutton	46	16/17	'The implications of Clause 28' — the effects of the Local Government Bill on social work counselling with homosexuals. Mary Manning	38	14/15
'Social work approach to health in older people' — Call for a holistic approach. Steve Scrutton	47	18/19	Hospital Social Work
'Multi-skilled carers in the community'. (See Domiciliary Care)	48	13-15	'Caring for children in hospital — the social worker's role' — Social work in a children's heart unit. Priscilla Alderson and Susan Rees	16	14/15
Family Services
'Damage limitation during divorce' — The work of the Bristol Family Conciliation Service. Ann Hills	21	8	'The marginalisation of hospital social work — a threat to resist' — A symptom of the undervalued profession. Ann Loxley	20	12/13
'Dealing with victims of domestic violence'. (See Practice)	40	12/13	Human Rights
'Saving family placements'. Sue Newton	45	16	'Providing hope for prisoners abroad' — The work of the National Council for the Welfare of Prisoners Abroad. Daniel de Souza	23	21/22
'Relate pushes forward at 50' — The work of the National Marriage Guidance Council. Ann Hills	45	17	International Social Work
Foster Care
'An alternative to fostering, can it work?' — The viability of foster care and what is the alternative? Margaret Jervis	22	14/15	'European social workers do have a common front door' — Report of the IFSW conference in Cyprus. Paul Dolan	10	10
'Helping babies with AIDS'. (See AIDS)	33	15	'Ammonia up the nose, compressed air in the face: abuse or therapy?' — Work of the Behaviour Research Institute in the United States. Larry Gostin	12	16/17
'Is fostering the right answer?' — Examination of Fife's child care policies — separation of brothers and sisters. Nicola Barry	34	20	'Social care for mental handicap, US style'. (See Mental Handicap)	29	20
'Learning to foster abused children'. (See Child Abuse)	48	18/19	'Agents of social change' — Social work in Zimbabwe. Ann Hills	37	18/19
'Surviving a harsh and loveless childhood' — Personal account of a childhood in foster care. Sheila Easson	48	20	'Temperance versus reform' — Child care policies in Sweden. Arthur Gould	45	18/19
Gender Issues
'Setting the framework for a long-term project' — The case for an alternative women-centred system. Judy Fawcett	30	12/13	'Stockholm debates gender' — IFSW world conference preview. Jan Beagley	46	13
'Where's your sense of humour?' — A description of sexism in the management setting. Jan Beagley	31	14/15	'Law to aid adult adoptees' — Adoption laws in New Zealand. (See Adoption)	46	18
'The sexist impact of policy' — How legal and policy considerations reduce opportunities for women. Jacqui Moore	32	16/17	'New agenda to fight for social justice' — Reports from IFSW world conference in Stockholm. David Hagland	48	8/9
'Feminism — the anti-sexist male's response' — Opening a dialogue between male social workers and feminists. Richard Thomas	33	20/21	'A view across Lake Mälaren' — Further reports from Stockholm conference. Jan Beagley & David Hagland	49	8/9
Griffiths Report
'Griffiths — an agenda for action'. Lynn Eaton	28	6	'Help with Amin's legacy' — British social work project in Uganda. Phil Cohen	49	10
Juvenile Justice
'Policy, management and practice must relate' — Improving the effectiveness of the juvenile justice system. Trevor Locke & Chris Batty
'Bailing them out: advantages of Nottingham bail support scheme'. John Seals
'Community supervision: making it work'. Dave Miller & Chris Bush

SOCIAL WORK TODAY INDEX: VOLUME 19

Articles and Papers	Issue No	Page
'Where is intermediate treatment going?' — What is needed to make community alternatives to court appearance more effective. Alan John and Mike Hodgson	41	18/19	'Tornaveen: acting as a supportive bridge' — Description of a special health care centre for discharged mentally ill people. Nicola Barry
'Caring philosophy guides teamwork with delinquents' — Work of a Community Home with Education in Nottinghamshire. John Pressley	49	14/15	'Taking care into the community' — The work of a small purpose-built unit in Sheffield designed to support mentally ill people. Richard Hugman and Pat Rimmer
'Birth of a custody-free zone for London juveniles' — Description of Hillingdon's alternatives to custody schemes. Members of the Hillingdon team	50	14/15	'Vital role of social circumstance reporting' — The importance of social reports for mental health tribunals. Jon Lloyd
'Opportunity knocks to reduce juvenile custody' — Review of the first year of the Crown Prosecution Service and how it can help the number of juveniles taken into custody. Christopher Hardy and Chris Batty	50	16/17	'The crumbling institutions of mental health' — The need for a humanistic approach to mental health tribunals. David Brandon
'Making liaison with the CPS work for your clients' — Second article reviewing first year of Crown Prosecution Service. Christopher Hardy and Chris Batty	51	18/19	'Mutual health groups in mental health'. Andrew Milroy
Loss 'Learning to survive and cope with human loss' — Principles for effective intervention. Raymond Berger	34	14/17	'Mental health social work: the state of the art' — Change of direction needed. Shulamit Ramon
Management 'It's a tough life at the top' — Reasons behind the departure of social services directors. Anne Fry	29	9	'When housing means a home of your own' — The housing needs of mentally ill people. Ron Thompson
'Fieldwork audit: a way of keeping up standards' — Norfolk SSD rigorously assesses its own services. SWT award winner (Management). Sally Burningham	35	14/15	'Real work for real money' — Training and employment opportunities for people with learning difficulties. David Brandon
'Reflections of a manager'. (See Residential Care)	38	16/17	'Patients' groups change mental health service'. (See Consumer Involvement)
Mental Handicap 'Turning those good intentions into new opportunities' — A blueprint for planning services for people with special needs. Tessa Jowell	2	7/8	NALGO 'Why NALGO needs a political fund'. Alan Jinkinson
'Is management the answer to problems facing CMHTs' — Ways of better managing community mental handicap teams. Richard Woolrych	2	8/9	'A working mother speaking for social services workers' — Profile of Alison Mitchell, NALGO's social services spokesperson. Anne Fry
'Hard questions needed about independence for our clients' — Importance of accountability in mental handicap work. Mary Peckham	2	10/11	Nutrition 'How diet can improve the health of older people'. (See Elderly Care)
'Sexuality and mental handicap: the issues and concerns'. Ann Craft and Deborah Kitson	5	8-10	Parity 'The BASW view on equal status' — The case for parity of conditions for residential and field work staff. Charlotte Lodge and Julie Ridley
'The nature of joint work in mental handicap'. Paul Taylor	5	11	'BASW Report with a vital role' — Management issues for an integrated service. Alan Griffin
'The benefits of community care as seen in Nottinghamshire' — Including a welfare rights officer in a community mental handicap team. Ian James et al	7	10/11	'Hypocrisy, parity... or integration?' — Residential view of parity of conditions. David Lane
'Abolishing the myth of the perfect service' — Principles of re-settlement work with mentally handicapped people. Yvonne Morland	7	12/13	Poll Tax 'The disruption and confusion that lies in store when the poll tax comes into force' — Likely effects of poll tax on social service users. Geoff Fimister
'How a survey led to more responsible work for Asian families'. Catherine Walker	7	12/13	'Social work's poll tax poser' — Poll tax register threatens to undermine confidentiality and trust between social worker and client. Phil Cohen
'The legal issues of dealing with cases of abuse' — Present laws fail to protect mentally handicapped people. Richard Woolrych	9	11/12	Post Viral Syndrome 'ME — an illness which is not "all in the mind"' — Description of ME (Post Viral Syndrome). Sue Pottle and Dr Charles Shepherd
'Accept the challenge to meet the needs of our clients' — Shortcomings of day care services for people with a mental handicap. Nick Morey	11	11	Practice 'Service with dignity among the Western Isles' — A look at social work practice in the Outer Hebrides. Ann Hills
'Ammonia up the nose, compressed air in the face: abuse or therapy?' (See International Social Work)	12	16/17	'First steps towards a non-sexist child care practice'. Fiona Gardner
'A bit more peace of mind? — Families' views of a community mental handicap service'. Linda Ward	14	12-14	'Do social workers have a special role in helping AIDS patients?' (See AIDS)
'Edinburgh organisation offers a sensitive ear' — Work of a Scottish counselling group for parents with mentally handicapped children. Nicola Barry	19	7	'Sharing tasks will mean more client choice' — The case for keyworker tasks to be shared by pairing. Ian Mallinson and Errol Best
'The wrong side of the line' — Disturbing story of a young mentally handicapped man in Scotland. Nicola Barry	25	16	'Working with fathers in the inner city' — Multi-agency support group for male single parents in Birmingham. Anne Willis
'Social care for mental handicap, US style' — The work of a voluntary organisation in the United States. Patricia Higham	29	20	'Training and practice — forging the links'. (See Education and Training)
'Learning to help: training for respite' (See Education and Training)	39	16/17	'A bridge for people recovering from a stroke' — Work of the Leeds Family Placement Scheme. Mary Jolley
Mental Health 'Hospital "angels" fear their role in community care is at risk' — Scottish nurses fear jobs will be lost with closure of long-stay hospitals. Nicola Barry	1	10/11	'Success on a shoe-string for family rights group' — Work of the Family Rights Group. Dr Bob Holman
			'A collective challenge to traditional practices' — Description of a teamwork approach by four social workers in Plymouth. Various

SOCIAL WORK TODAY INDEX: VOLUME 19

Articles and Papers	Issue No	Page		18	12/13
Listed by Subject and Title
'Social services back the super sextuplets' — How Redbridge SSD is helping the Coleman family. Anne Fry	36	7	'Fighting racism — an optimist and a realist' — Profile of Bandana Ahmad. (See Profiles)	19	8
'Collectivism — an alternative ideology' — The case for a collectivist approach to social work practice. Gillian Dalley	36	12/13	'Ethnic minority elders want more sensitive services' — Report of a conference on services for elderly black people. Mary Jolley	19	9
'Dealing with victims of domestic violence' — Examples of good and bad practice when working with women who are battered. Jean Osborne	40	12/13	'The development of social work practice and policies on race' . Bandana Ahmad	19	14/15
'Off the shelf scheme brings mutual benefits' — Description of Liverpool shopping delivery service. SWT Award winner (Practice). Margaret Jervis	42	18/19	'The black experience of social services'. (See Consumer Involvement)	19	16/17
Prison			'Keeping independent to work for racial equality'. (See Profiles)	20	18
'Advice line goes from strength to strength' — Birmingham advice service and help line for families of prisoners. Maggie Fogarty	1	12	'Power and progress in social work education' — Preview of a black workshop on social work education born out of frustration and an anxiety to have anti-racism taken seriously. Peter Ferns	22	9
'Providing help for prisoners abroad'. (See Human Rights)	23	21/22	'Meeting the housing needs of elderly Asian people'. (See Elderly Care)	23	18/19
'Visiting time complications put strain on families' — Problems low income families face in visiting prisoners (Scotland). Nicola Barry	29	8	'Excellence in ethnic elderly care' — Liverpool Personal Service Society project for elderly Chinese women. SWT Award Winner (Equal Opportunities). John Gilbert	43	12/13
Private Sector			'Falling between two cultures' — Social work with Moroccan families in Westminster. Rafael Halahmy	43	12/13
'Registered homes and residents' well-being'. (See Residential Care)	13	12/13	Residential Care
'A passion for privatisation unsettles the social services' — Growing opposition to increasing privatisation. Anne Fry	28	7	'Registered homes and residents' well-being' — The effect of Registered Homes Act on residents of private and voluntary homes. Rosalind Brooke Ross	13	12/13
'Plugging a gap in the private care sector' — Interview with Chris Beddoe, former Director of National Care Associations. Anne Fry	42	7	'Residential care: change from the inside' — How an old style institution can be changed into a modern resource. John Burton	21	12/13
'Lessons social work can learn about moving on'. (See Disasters)	49	18/19	'Pulled all ways — the concerns of a new OIC (Officer in Charge)' — Reforming a part three residential home. John Burton	23	17
Probation			'Passing the parcel of responsibility for care' — The problems of managing a home undergoing modernisation. John Burton	25	20
'Tracking and tagging in bed together?' — Closer surveillance in probation work. Margaret Jervis	25	14/15	'Setting the system for residential care inspections' — Wagner review likely to herald changes in homes inspection system. Derek Heptinstall	26	8/9
'Video brings prisoners a message from home' — Probation officers who produced a video about life outside. Lesley Thompson and Alan Trinder	37	20/21	'Wagner aims to change image of residential care' — Details of Wagner review. Lynn Eaton	27	6
Profiles			'Wagner — the implications for residential care' — Interview with Wagner committee member, Patrick Phelan on importance of report. John Gilbert	27	18
'President ready to tackle issues' — New SCA President, Ian Baillie. John Gilbert	11	6	'An invitation to change' — Implications of Wagner for practice in residential homes. Des Kelly	27	19
'Fighting racism — an optimist and a realist' — Bandana Ahmed, Director of Race Equality Unit, NISW. John Gilbert	18	12/13	'A close inspection of the wood and the trees' — How life in a part three home can be improved. John Burton	27	20/21
'Keeping independent to work for racial equality' — Michael Day, Chief Probation Officer, West Midlands. John Gilbert	19	16/17	'Why residential care for alcohol and drug abusers?' (See Alcohol and Drug Abuse)	38	12/13
'Rebuilding morale in Liverpool' — David Mason, Liverpool's new Director of Social Services. John Gilbert	21	14/15	'Reflections of a manager' — How to be an effective manager in a residential setting. John Burton	38	16/17
'Effective management is key to success' — Geoffrey Clarkson, Director of National Autistic Society. Sally Burningham	22	16/17	'The future face of residential care?' — Report of conference to discuss implications of Wagner and Griffiths Reports for residential care. Derek Heptinstall	43	8
'A working mother speaking for social services workers' — Alison Mitchell. (See NALGO)	27	7	'Towards a psychological view of substance abuse'. (See Alcohol and Drug Abuse)	44	18/19
'Plain spoken and in love with social work' — Gwen Swire. (See BASW)	28	13	'Saving family placements' — Effect of new legislation governing unregistered homes on adult family placement schemes. Sue Newton	45	16
Social Care Association			Social Fund
'President ready to tackle issues' — Interview with Ian Baillie, incoming President. John Gilbert	31	10/11	'Non co-operation with the Social Fund' — BASW's opposition to the Fund and its guidelines to social workers. Alaster Calder	19	12
'Plugging a gap in the private care sector' — Chris Beddoe. (See Private Sector)	37	10/11	'Making the system work' — How social workers can best help their clients'. Herbert Laming	19	13
'In the Spastics Society hot seat' — Ken Young having resigned as Director of East Sussex SSD and taken over as Chief Executive of the Spastics Society. Anne Fry	49	11	'Monitoring is key to Social Fund response' — Voluntary sector's response to Social Fund. Margaret Jervis	32	6
Race Issues			Social Policy
'How a survey led to providing more responsive help for Asian families'. (See Mental Handicap)	7	12/13	'The set menu gives way to the mixed grill' — The mix of service provision offered by the private, voluntary and public sectors. Joan Cooper	39	14/15
'Alternative services which aim to affirm an ethnic identity'. (See Elderly Care)	13	10/11

SOCIAL WORK TODAY INDEX: VOLUME 19

Articles and Papers	Issue No	Page		10	19
Listed by Subject and Title
'How warfare measures led to child welfare services'. (See Child Care)	47	16/17	'Rough justice of "them" and "us" — The plight of staff who break ranks. Jeff Hopkins	12	14/15
Social Security			'Meeting the care needs of staff in the PSS' — How other professions respond to stress. Jeff Hopkins	22	6/7
'Independence threatened for young people leaving care' — The effect social security changes will have on young people leaving care and setting up home. Chris Davies	6	12/13	'Transitional stage in staff care campaign' — Reports from Staff Care seminar in Stoke-on-Trent. John Gilbert	41	8/9
'Claim it today — before they take it away' — Benefits take-up campaign. Tony Bennett	12	11	'Stress that comes with holding the short straw' — Personal account of handling stress. Ruth Woodhead
'Determination to advocate on behalf of claimants'. Margaret Jervis	24	6
(Social Work Conditions)
(See Parity)
'London staffing crisis: survey reveals 4,000 vacancies'. Anne Fry	32	7	Truancy
Social Work Today Awards			'An absence of co-operation allows truancy free play' — The importance of multi-disciplinary approach to truancy. Peter Randall	41	12/13
'Good practice in social work is highlighted at award ceremony' — Presentation of 1987 awards. John Gilbert	9	8/9
'Releasing stress and building confidence with karate' — How karate has changed the lives of disabled people. SWT special award (Interview with winner Dirk Robertson). Sally Burningham	21	16/17	Voluntary Organisations
'Excellence in ethnic elderly care' — Equal opportunities winner.	23	18/19	'Pioneering hi-tech for toddlers' — Spastics Society provides a means of communication for youngsters with severe cerebral palsy. Ann Hills	3	5
(See Race Issues)			'Damage limitation during divorce' — Bristol Family Conciliation Service. (See Family Services)	21	8
'Filling a gap in child care training' — Education/training winner.	24	14/15	'Family celebrations: groups look ahead' — The work of the Samaritans after 35 years. Ann Hills	32	12/13
(See Child Care)			'Family Service Units: ambitious after 40 years'. Ann Hills	36	16/17
'Sitting tight — taking the strain for carers' — Care in the community winner.	30	16/17	'Marriage of theory and practice 40 years on' — Work of the Institute of Marital Studies. Ann Hills	38	19
(See Community Social Work)			'A step forward for families' — Work of National Stepfather Association after 5 years. Ann Hills	40	16
'Fieldwork audit — a way of keeping up standards' — Norfolk audit, management section winner.	35	14/15	'The future face of residential care?' — NCVO conference on residential care. (See Residential Care)	43	8
(See Management)			'RELATE pushes forward at 50' — The National Marriage Guidance Council after 50 years. Ann Hills	45	17
'Off the shelf scheme brings mutual benefits' — Practice section winner.	42	18/19	'In the Spastics Society hot seat' — Interview with Spastics Society's new chief executive, Ken Young. (See Profiles)	49	11
(See Practice)
'Survivors who must turn tragedy into opportunity' — Bradford City Link.	49	16/17	Wagner Report (See Residential Care)
(See Disasters)
Staff Care			Wardship
'The need for staff care in the personal social services' — Launch of staff care campaign. Jeff Hopkins	3	10/12	'Foetus wardship case: fears for the unborn child' — Response to local authority's attempt to make a foetus a ward of court. Ann Fry	21	7
'The aftermath of violence' — General introduction.	4	8
'Guidelines for post-assault counselling and support'. Jeff Hopkins	4	9	Special Features and Supplements
'How social workers can cope with being victims' — Personal account of a victim of violence. Carole Protherough	4	10/12	'HUSITA '87' — An eight page supplement previewing an international convention on the use of computers in personal social services.	1
'Impact of disciplinary procedures on staff' — How professions help staff who are under investigation. Lynn Eaton	5	12/13	'BOOKS' — An eight page supplement featuring reviews of recently published books.	2
'The casualties of change' — How trade unions and management view the effect of reorganisation. Ann Hills	6	14/15	'SOCIAL WORK TODAY AWARDS' — A four page full colour supplement with details of winners and runners-up of 1987 awards.	4
'Is your organisation fit for human habitation?' — How individuals can feel like displaced persons within their own organisations. Jeff Hopkins	6	15	'BOOKS' — A six page supplement of book reviews.	14
'The effect of work-related stress' — "I dread going into work each morning" — Personal account of stress. Jeff Hopkins	7	14/15	'HOLIDAYS AND TRAVEL' — A four page special feature on holidays and travel tailored for people with disabilities.	23
'Examining stress in social work'. Margaret Jervis	7	14/15	'BOOKS' — An eight page special feature of book reviews.	25
'When teams fall apart — Conflict and tensions in groups'. Ian Cook	8	14	'AUDIOVISUALS' — A five page feature reviewing some of the latest video productions for social services.	30
'The "family life" of staff teams' — Relating struggles in the staff team with conflict in the family. Bob Harris	8	15	'CARING FOR CHILDREN' — A 14 page special feature on child protection and children's toys.	35
'The sexual harassment of social workers' — American research on the issue.	9	13	'MIDLANDS NAIDEX' — A nine page preview of Midlands Naidex at Birmingham's NEC including a comprehensive guide to products on display.
'Women social workers talking . . .' — The effects of sexist behaviour and attitudes. Maggie Fogarty	9	13/14	'MOBILITY' — An 11 page feature on latest developments in independent mobility for disabled people.	38
'The Liverpool study . . .' — Social work from a gender perspective. Ruth Eley	9	15	'BOOKS' — An eight page feature reviewing some of the latest books.	41
'Turning social work skills onto the problem of staff distress' — A Catholic network that tries to help. Margaret Jervis	10	18	'MANAGEMENT' — A seven page feature focusing on computers in social services management.	45
			'RESIDENTIAL CARE' — A five page feature on improving the quality of care in residential homes.	48

